PARTNERSHIP WITH CENTRAL LOUISIANA AHEC  AHEC

If you've considered a career in nursing, you will want to take advantage of this unique opportunity. You'll combine hospital tours and CPR training with the personal experiences of LC nursing students, faculty and graduates.

Discover Louisiana College's exceptional nursing program. The purpose of the Division of Nursing is to educate, from a Christian perspective, a professional nurse to practice within a caring context in a variety of health care settings. The nursing major is a four-year baccalaureate program including clinical experience in both in-patient and ambulatory settings.

Dates: June 7-9, 2010 (Monday through 12:00 Wednesday)
If you are a senior and applied to LC then you may attend Nurse Camp Monday-Wednesday, and stay for Frosh Days Thursday-Friday.

Cost:: $150. Includes 2 nights lodging, all meals, and a scrub top. Transportation to area facilities will be provided. Scholarships are available.

Location: Louisiana College
Division of Nursing
Cavanaugh Hall,
plus various clinical sites
